About the Choir

One of London's most dynamic chamber choirs, New London Singers' aim is to offer audiences and our members memorable music of the highest quality. Our musical repertoire is both broad and adventurous, including sacred and secular, Renaissance to contemporary. Concerts range from great choral works to ambitious and exciting a cappella performances.

New London Singers is also a touring and recording choir having performed at historic venues across Europe and with a growing discography available for purchase as CD or MP3 (see our website for full details).

The Choir performs most regularly at St Martin-in-the-Fields, London, and is also available for private hire, either as a full 40-strong choir or as a smaller ensemble for more intimate functions.
